NESHAMINY FEDERATION OF TEACHERS RESPONDS TO DISTRICT'S LATEST CONTRACT PROPOSAL

LANGHORNE, PA (July 18, 2011) — A statement from Louise Boyd, President of the NFT, in response to the District's latest contract proposal:

The Neshaminy School District's counterproposal is an insult to every certified staff member in this District. This session was another demonstration of the Board's plan to avoid, at all costs, good faith negotiations.

We shared this position with the Board's Negotiating Team. In addition we informed them that our response will be shared at an appropriate time and in an appropriate fashion.

ABOUT THE NFT

The Neshaminy Federation of Teachers was chartered in 1966 and has been the exclusive bargaining agent for the District's certified staff since 1975. Today it proudly represents 675 members and has an active retiree chapter. The NFT is a member of the American Federation of Teachers (AFT), an affiliate of the AFL-CIO, founded in 1916 that today represents 1.5 million members in 3,000 local affiliates nationwide.
