

NFT president, Louise Boyd and School Board president, Richie Webb, along with their attorneys met for an hour and a half and conducted open and frank discussions regarding the issues that are separating them. The result was that both parties agreed to obtain specific numbers from the healthcare carriers. Another meeting is scheduled for February 15, 2011.